JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 22 September 1964

	/ 25X1
Foreign Affairs Committee staff, who attempted to arrange a meeting with Chairman Morgan which is now set for three o'clock tomorrow on the study of foundations by the Fascell Subcommittee.
2. Attempted to talk with Senator Howard	25X1
W. Cannon and in his absence talked with John Hayward who indicated the Senator possibly would be called back into town. On that basis I furnished him with the one-page briefing sheet on our early retirement hill naking that it be brought to the Senator's attention. Mr. Hayward assured me the Senator would be interested and if they had any questions they would be in touch with the Agency.
3. Attempted to talk with Senator Henry	25X1
M. Jackson and in his absence talked with Miss Dorothy Fosdick who indicated the Senator possibly would be called back into town. On that basis I furnished Miss Fosdick with the one-page briefing sheet on our early retirement bill asking that it be brought to the Senator's attention.
Miss Fosdick assured me the Senator would be interested and if they had any questions they would be in touch with the Agency.
Tried to meet with Senator Stuart	25 Y 1
4. Tried to meet with Senator Stuart Seminates who had just returned from the State and could not see and	25X1
Seminaton who had just returned from the State and could not see me	25X1
Symington who had just returned from the State and could not see and teday. I discussed our early retirement bill with Jim Gehrig who in my	25X1
Symington who had just returned from the State and could not see and today. I discussed our early retirement bill with Jim Gehrig who in my presence dictated a memorandum on the retirement bill to the Senator. Gehris was certain that the Senator would be happy to do anything he Symington who had just returned from the State and could not see and teday. I discussed our early retirement bill with Jim Gehrig who in my
Symington who had just returned from the State and could not see me today. I discussed our early retirement bill with Jim Gehrig who in my presence dictated a memorandum on the retirement bill to the Senator. Gehrig was certain that the Senator would be happy to do anything be could and would let me know if the Senator needed any further information.  Jay Sourwine called and indicated that in	ł.
Symington who had just returned from the State and could not see me today. I discussed our early retirement bill with Jim Gehrig who in my presence dictated a memorandum on the retirement bill to the Senator. Gehrig was certain that the Senator would be happy to do anything he could and would let me know if the Senator needed any further information.  Jay Sourwine called and indicated that in the most recent issue of ESCUIRE, on the newstands tomorrow, there is	•• 25X1
Symington who had just returned from the State and could not see me today. I discussed our early retirement bill with Jim Gehrig who in my presence dictated a memorandum on the retirement bill to the Senator. Gehrig was certain that the Senator would be happy to do anything be could and would let me know if the Senator needed any further information the most recent issue of ESQUIRE, on the newstands tomorrow, there is an article by William Worthy concerning American negroes in Communis	25X1
Symington who had just returned from the State and could not see me today. I discussed our early retirement bill with Jim Gehrig who in my presence dictated a memorandum on the retirement bill to the Senator. Gehrig was certain that the Senator would be happy to do anything be could and would let me know if the Senator needed any further information the most recent issue of ESCUIRE, on the newstands tomorrow, there is an article by William Worthy concerning American negroes in Communis China. According to Sourwine, this article indicates there was a meeting	25X1
Symington who had just returned from the State and could not see me today. I discussed our early retirement bill with Jim Gehrig who in my presence dictated a memorandum on the retirement bill to the Senator. Gehrig was certain that the Senator would be happy to do anything he could and would let me know if the Senator needed any further information the most recent issue of ESJUIRE, on the newstands tomorrow, there is an article by William Warthy concerning American negroes in Communist China. According to Sourwine, this article indicates there was a mactin. Paiding between American negroes and Communist Chinase. He said that	25X1 L
Symington who had just returned from the State and could not see me today. I discussed our early retirement bill with Jim Gehrig who in my presence dictated a memorandum on the retirement bill to the Senator. Gehrig was certain that the Senator would be happy to do anything be could and would let me know if the Senator needed any further information the most recent issue of ESQUIRE, on the newstands tomorrow, there is an article by William Worthy concerning American negroes in Communis	25X1 L

CIA GOTTENALIUEHACNLY